Bio

Damien was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada on May 21st 2002. Growing up, sports had been a major aspect of his life and became a passion to him. As his athletic journey grew, came a growing passion towards the arts and more specifically to photography and graphic design. In 2019, while attending Champlain College Saint-Lambert in the South Shore of Montreal, he studied Digital Arts all the while playing Football for the Champlain Cavaliers. Its here, his passions melded into his work today. Now attending Bishop's University for a Bachelor's of Arts in Fine Arts, he continues playing football while acting as the Creative Director for the Bishops Gaiters Football team. But as the lead graphic designer, for the Bishop's Universities Sports & Athletics department as well.
